Counseling Support Service

Disruptions in the routine of students and the uncertainties in their lives are leading to worry, anxiety and stress which is becoming a way of life. Many are not able to cope with the complexity of the situations, there by necessitating the need to seek help.

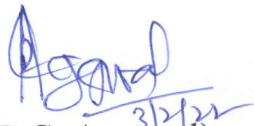

RIE Bhubaneswar is making a providential set up for stretching out help through counseling services and in this journey is creating a counseling support service where professionally trained counselors will be able to hold the hand, at any time for the students at their requirement.

We are looking forward to our alumnus of DCGC joining us in this voluntary endeavor and the contact number / timing of those interested will be shared with the students, to reach out at the time of need.

DCGC Alumni who are willing to volunteer may fill up details in the link given below.
