Sub: Permitting Teacher Interns from RIE for internship in JNVs.

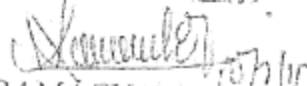

Sir/Madam,

With reference to above stated subject, it is to recall that some request have come from RIE for permitting students interns in JNVs for internship for a period of 30-45 days. Permissions have already been given. It is further presumed that necessary instructions have been issued to the JNVs regarding the same with detailed guidelines on how to handle the internship programme in the JNVs. However, some of the guidelines which may be of good use are being communicated herewith for supporting the said activity in JNVs.

1. Permitting interns in the JNV may be viewed as an opportunity to mentor the future generation of teachers. Through this our regular teachers will get the chance to train the future generation of teachers in all aspects of life cycle of the teachers in Navodaya Vidyalaya System.
2. The regular teachers in the NV should be able to hand hold the intern in encouraging them to learn all the aspects of teaching learning testing and evaluation, residential components, co-scholastic activities, Self study classes, remedial teaching and expertise in the curricular framework and concepts.
3. Teacher interns will be permitted to teach the concepts in those subjects as permitted by the teacher concerned.
4. Teaching by the interns will take place in the presence of teachers of JNV in the classroom, on a co-teaching mode so that the regular teacher may supplement and complement the required factors. Therefore, the subject teachers should invariably be present to ensure that teaching learning process inside the class takes place at the desired level and the components of formative assessment are also followed as per CBSE norms.

5. Similarly the experience of design of testing and evaluation will also be imparted to the interns while such processes are carried by the regular teacher in the vidyalaya.
6. Interns may be allotted all the duties as applicable to the teachers inside the vidyalaya except escort duty related to journey of the students outside the campus as this involves higher order of responsibilities. In all activities allotment of duties like incharge of activities/MOD/House Master/Programme Incharge/Morning PT/ Assembly/Mess Incharge/additional responsibilities the assistance of the interns may be obtained to give them the training of understanding the processes. The degree of freedom given to the interns may depend upon the teacher who associates the interns.
7. To provide appropriate comforts to the intern students, it may be ensured that female interns are always attached with the female teachers.
8. The RO may devise an appropriate report format for the report from the mentor teacher to the Principal in respect of performance of the intern students so that the intern will keep working fruitfully.
9. In view of the requirement of appropriate attention on the intern by the vidyalaya authorities it may be good to restrict the number of interns for school only up to 5 per JNV at a given point of time.
10. All rules of conduct as applicable to employees of the vidyalaya are applicable to Interns. It will also be essential to get an undertaking from the individual intern regarding their proper conduct during the tenure of internship, duly countersigned by the authority of Parent Institute.
11. In case of any mal adjustment/mis-conduct by the intern/s in view of the residential nature of the JNVs, strict action shall be taken to return back the intern to the parent institution apart from initiating any other action as deemed fit in the interest of the vidyalaya. In any case the parent institution will be responsible to handle such events.
12. The Teacher Interns will deposit in advance the mess charges. Since all the interns will have the meals served to the students on regular basis, no special arrangements will be made on this account. Nor visiting interns demand for special treatment. Stay arrangements may be made as per availability in the JNV concerned. However, visiting faculties from RIEs may be provided accommodation in the Guest House, as per availability, on chargeable basis.

Yours faithfully,

(A.N. RAMACHANDRA)
